

Cynthia (Cindy) Towers is co-founder and CEO of JURISolutions, one of the largest woman-owned (WBENC-certified) legal services firms in the country. Founded in 1997 as a legal staffing firm called JuriStaff, today JURISolutions delivers innovative and value-driven legal solutions to corporations, law firms and government entities across the country. The company's offerings include highly skilled project attorneys, full-service legal staff augmentation, end-to-end litigation support, government support services, and executive legal search. Cindy is a nurse turned lawyer who began her legal career in 1991 specializing in products liability and medical malpractice litigation.

Cindy is a huge supporter of women and other diverse groups in business and the law. JURISolutions is a Founding Partner of Women Owned Law (WOL) and is a Corporate Partner of the NGLCC. Cindy holds several Board seats including the Women's Business Enterprise National Counsel (WBENC), the Women's Business Development Center (WBDC), Women Owned Law (WOL), and the SBA's Regulatory Fairness Board. She is an active member of Women Influencing Public Policy (WIPP) and she is co-chair of the NGLCC's National Legal Industry Council (<http://www.nglcc.org/legalindustry>). Cindy also enjoys mentoring diverse entrepreneurs and is a frequent speaker on the supplier diversity and diversity and inclusion in business and law. Outside of her interests in diversity, Cindy is a founding member of the American Cancer Society's Pennsylvania Chapter of CEO's Against Cancer and she is a dedicated basketball and swim mom.

Cindy and JURISolutions have been recognized by numerous awards including the Philadelphia Business Journal's 2017 Best of Bar Award; WBENC's 2017 Choice Award for Best WBE Mentor; Smart CEO Magazine's 2015 Circle of Excellence Award Finalist; WBENC's 2013 Women's Business Enterprise Star; Women's Business Enterprise Council PA-DE-sNJ 2011 Leadership Award; the 2010 Philadelphia Business Journal's Philly100 Award; and SmartCEO Magazine's 2010 Future50 Award. The company is also proud to be a multiple-year recipient of DiversityBusiness.com Top 500 Women Owned Businesses and American Lawyer Magazine's Gold Award for Top Legal Recruitment Firm Nationally.